$35,000 Fire Destroys Big School House

Fire yesterday morning completely destroyed the East Pike Run township High school building at California, Pa., with an estimated loss of $35,000. The fire was caused from an overheated furnace in the basement of the building and the flames spread so rapidly that the pupils had only made their escape when the entire building was a mass of flames. The little town has no fire fighting apparatus and the structure was completely destroyed with all its contents.

Four hundred pupils were in the building at the time of the fire and when the alarm was sounded they quietly marched to safety. The fire was discovered at 9:30 by the janitor who spread the alarm and the the rooms were fast filling with smoke as the children marched out under the instructions of the teachers. The building was of wood and contained six rooms.

Golden Wedding

Sunday, November 21, Mr. and Mrs. E. Janavitz of McKeesport will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at which time it is expected, three hundred and fifty persons will assemble at the Masonic hall in the Tube City to pay their respects to the bride and groom.

Great preparations are being made for the affair which will include a banquet at which one hundred guests will be seated around the festive board. Mr. and Mrs. Janavitz are well known here, being the parents of Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Harry Lebowitz and Max Janavitz. Two other children are Mrs. J. Firestone of Donora and Jacob Janavitz of East Liverpool. In addition to relatives a number of other local people have received invitations and expect to be in attendance.

Died Yesterday

Mrs. Clara J. Neill, aged 69 years, after a serious illness of eight months, died yesterday at 11 o'clock in her home, 609 Hancock street, Monongahela, Pa. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Besides her husband, J. C. Neill, Mrs. Neil leaves six children, James E. Neill and Mrs. B. C. Ross, of Pittsburgh; Fred Neill and Mrs. Della N. Miller of Monongahela; Edward Neill of Marietta, O., and A. C. Neill of 1103½ Division street, Monessen. Mrs. Neill formerly was a resident of Monessen, where her husband was employed at the Page mill. Mr. Neill's many friends extend their sympathy to him and his family in their bereavement. Funeral services will be held at the home Friday at 2 o'clock. Interment in Monongahela cemetery.

To Correct Errors

Notices have been received here by many local residents to appear before Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Charles E. O'Neill on Friday of this week at the Fifth Avenue hotel to explain discrepancies in their income tax reports. It has transpired that a great number have made errors in their returns, due to incorrect understanding of the law or failure to inform themselves fully regarding their own income during the year. After careful investigation by the Internal Revenue Service a number of errors were discovered in the returns for 1919 and these persons will be called before the Deputy Collector to make the necessary corrections.

SECOND MURDER CASE FROM THIS VICINITY ENDS WITH ACQUITTAL OF MAN

After being out all night, the jury in the case of Alex Dudgeon of Priedale, charged with the murder of Frank Ball, this morning returned a verdict of "Not Guilty." This is the second murder case from this vicinity in which the accused was acquitted. Only yesterday George Enitko, who struck Mike Benbince with an axe, crushing his skull, the same day of the Ball murder, was acquitted when Judge McConnell charged the jury to return a verdict of "Not Guilty."

Local Lodge Justly Proud of Achievements

Saturday last was sure a gala day in the history of Pythianism in Monessen. A special train from McKeesport, carrying two hundred and sixty eight officers and members of KaLaab Temple No. 212 D. O. K. of K. for the ceremonial, put on at the High school gym, arrived in Monessen Saturday afternoon. To say that the visitors were well pleased is putting it mild. GOOD ATTENDANCE

Despite the inclemency of the weather Tuesday evening, the Ladies Adult Bible class meeting of the Baptist church, was largely attended at the home of Mrs. T. H. Jones in Essen. Music and fancy work were the diversions of the evening, which passed all too quickly. A most delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Smales. At a late hour all departed for their homes expressing gratitude for a lovely evening.

Civic Body Gives Notice of Meeting

Bulletins are out for the November meeting of the Board of Trade to be held in the High school building Friday evening, the 19th.

The meeting will be full of interest. There will be a nominating committee appointed to select officers for next year. They will report at the December meeting. The annual banquet is approaching and the Board will have to go some to get a speaker for the banquet to equal Senator Harding. His trip here helped to make him president of the United States. Harding and the town both became of national importance at once. His campaign seemed to spring from the local banquet as it took on momentum from that very date.

This year they say it will be bigger and better than ever. If you want a hand in producing the searchlight that will radiate miles and miles and bring Monessen to the front as one of the cities that does things, get in elbow touch with your neighbor and fellow civic worker and help do the job. The Board of Trade is a living energetic body and it needs the brain and vigor of the town's manhood and now is the time to join.

The Third Class City went over four to one as a result of the Board of Trade's efforts to educate and enlighten, and now comes the really big job—that of restoring the town to "Constitutional government" and we want men who are willing to make a study of government and who will apply their knowledge to the management of the city, unbiased and unprejudiced against individual or institution. The Board of Trade will at once take up the study of government and will do all in its power to direct the city aright—will do its utmost to get it out of the present day methods of management and with the change of system and law, will aid in the application of system and law that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number.

There are big jobs here for every body. The annexation problem confronts us. The development committee is working hard to bring about the annexation of the territory that rightfully belongs to the corporate limits. Keep in mind the day and date of the meeting and be sure you get out and help the fellow who is putting his shoulder to the wheel to help the town.

Rioting in Greece

(By United Press)

Athens, Nov. 17—Rioting broke out in front of the foreign office today as a result of the national elections.

Many persons including a number of children, were reported killed when the space before the office was swept with machine gun fire. Adherents of King Constantine were blamed for the firing.

Recent Cenlouriotis is said to have refused the resignation of Premier Venizelos until votes from the army have been compiled. It is believed, however that no matter what the result, Venizelos will insist on withdrawing feeling that the small majority still possible is not a sufficient endorsement.

Venizelos, before submitting his resignation, telegraphed the Greek commander in Asia Minor, ordering him to continue operations until further orders are received.

The premier was quoted as saying: "The people say nay for the Greek people and they have condemned my policy. I have retired.

"I have been accused of being a tyrant and I am giving my place to others who will not be tyrants."

Fatal Joy Ride

Chicago, Nov. 17.—A sordid tale today cleared the mystery surrounding the deaths of the two actresses —Mary Rhodes of Altoona, Pa., and Lillian Thompson of Boston—here Sunday. Their deaths resulted from alcoholic poisoning and exposure, officials believed.

Police arrested three men, who, they said, confessed that they had taken the women on a "joy ride" on Saturday night. The women, the men said, were drunk when they picked them up. They were unable to stand up and had to be helped into the car. They were put out of car in Grant Park when they became too boisterous, the men said. Police were holding the men today but Chief of Detectives Michael Hughes said their story was undoubtedly true and they probably would be released.

The bodies of the dead women were found by police early Sunday following a mysterious telephone call. Pools of blood found near the scene at first caused the belief that the women had been beaten to death and later it was believed they had been drugged.

FEAR FOR SAFETY

Military evacuation of the entire Crimean peninsula was complete today, at thousands of civilians were left in Yalta. Theodosia and other cities

SECRET MEETINGS

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, Nov. 17—Secret discussion of league of nations affairs was believed far from assumed when the assembly opened today's meeting at 10:30 a. m.

Yesterday's decision that the six commissions which will thresh out all questions submitted to the assembly may hold secret or public sessions as the members please, was expected to meet renewed opposition today.

Newspaper correspondents who waged a fight for greater publicity at Versailles were disappointed at the ruling and were prepared for another attack on secrecy.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The Red Cross roll call is neither a money raising "drive" or a "campaign." It is precisely what it is termed—a roll call.

The roll of old members is being called in order that all may have an opportunity of renewing.

The roll of all Americans is being called in order that the membership may be enlarged and support of the organization be made as nearly unanimous as possible.

The Red Cross is functioning now just as usefully as it did during the war period. Its Home Service reports show undiminished activity. Financial, medical, nursing, Federal vocational, child-welfare, housing, and other forms of aid have been extended in a thousand different ways in this district.

The Woman's Bureau with branches in many nearby towns, has been busy making sweaters, socks, hospital garments, etc., for the needy of this district, and in addition has kept filled an "emergency closet," providing hospital supplies held in reserve for use at a moment's notice.

The Junior Department has 132 auxiliaries, with a total membership of 15,856, and when these youngsters come of adult age they will constitute a mighty force in support of the organization. Funds provided by the Juniors have provided community centers and aid has been sent to the starving children of Europe.

During the year the Motor Messenger Corps rendered valuable aid to the wounded soldiers stationed at Carlisle and the reserve section is at call in any emergency. The reserve Canteen Bureau has responded to calls frequently and a committee on disaster relief is ready for any contingency that may arise with experienced relief workers, physicians, nurses, motor corps and canteen workers, in numbers sufficient to meet whatever need develops.

These and many other things the Red Cross is doing. Its roll-call is a clarion call to duty to those who should stand behind it with moral and financial support. At any moment disaster may come. Surely, it is worth a dollar a year to keep such an organization at work and ready for any worthy call. The Red Cross is cheap insurance against disaster and misfortune.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Just around the corner lies a new era of the soundest prosperity America has ever known.

Business just now appears to be in the doldrums but in reality the trend toward better conditions already has set in. It may require a few months for development, but it is as certain to come as day is to follow night.

Business men everywhere who have studied the situation know this to be true.

The wise merchant and the wise manufacturer are they who are clearing their decks and getting ready to start afresh with the dawn of the new day.

The workmen who have been dropped from the pay rolls of the railroads and the big corporations will all find themselves either back at work at an early date, or otherwise employed. There has been for a long time a shortage of labor in many lines, because workmen have been attracted to work where the pay was very high. The readjustment will take many of these back to their old jobs and shortly we shall start off again with a full head of steam, every man in his place, and the ever-growing demands of a country in need of many things stimulating each to do his best to fill the fast increasing orders.

Formerly prices went up because people had more business than they could do, now prices stay up because there is not enough business to do it economically.

The long time between drinks is being experienced by a lot of people who are now lying in the cemetery as the result of wood alcohol concoctions.

The war department seemed to have bought a superfluous number of halters, but some of them will be needed to lead Congress around with.

In the days of peace the spears are supposed to be beaten into pruning hooks, but the American people would prefer to turn 'em into ball bats.

The Bible tells about beating swords into plow shares, but the populace seem more inclined to beat them into jazz band instruments.

United States claims to be a very healthy country, but you'd not know it judging by the amount of whisky being prescribed for sick people.

Deep consideration of the financial situation is now being given by many college students who have exceeded their allowance.

The "Back to the Farm" movement so far is mostly exemplified by the country boys who turn their backs on the farm.

Formerly the people were told to "put up or shut up." Now the profiteers say, "Put up, and shut up."

WHAT ARE YOUR CHANCES OF SUCCESS?

Do You Step Out with Snap and Vigor? Are You Able to Get Things Done?

DON'T STAND IN YOUR OWN WAY.

People with Thin, Weak Blood Have a Hard Time of it. They Should Take Pepto-Mangan

Look at the facts of your health. So much depends on having red blood. If you stand up in front of your work with half starved blood in your system you are standing in your own way. You are blocking your own progress.

Thin blood makes you dull. It makes you pale. You take no enjoyment out of your work. It is only half as good as it should be.

You can remedy that condition so easily. Begin taking that fine tonic, Pepto-Mangan, today and keep it up for awhile. Your blood will become nourished. Pepto-Mangan makes red blood corpuscles. You will get energy and strong power of resistence. Instead of standing in your own way, you will push yourself ahead because of greater vitality.

But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. It is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name is on the package. The tablets or the liquid have the same medicinal value. It

MANY AUTO LICENSES APPLIED FOR 1921

Harrisburg, Nov. 16.—Almost 10,000 applications for 1921 automobile licenses were stacked up at the state automobile division of the Highway Department today when the stamping force began sending out the tags. It is expected under the system established by Registrar Ben C. Hoy to handle the applications as fast as received and, if the hopes are realized, there will be no extension of time after January 1st.

PLANS FOR BETTERMENT OF SCHOOLS

Harrisburg, Nov. 17.—The Department of Education, has, among other plans for school betterment, the consolidation of schools in the rural districts where there are not enough teachers. The consolidation plan has been worked out with marked success in Franklin and Bedford counties, it was learned, where shortage of teachers or geographical conditions make it necessary.

Other townships and counties are also active in the consolidation movement. The directors of Colerain Township recently asked for a vote on a bond issue for consolidation. Here nine schools can be consolidated to be handled by five teachers, it was pointed out.

In Peters Towpship, Franklin county, a five room school, a three room school, a two room school, and a high school with 215 grade pupils and 43 high school pupils, were consolidated recently so that they could be taken care of by five teachers. The high school was advanced to a vocational school.

Bradford County, where the most rapid strides in school betterment under like conditions have been made, has adopted the plan where schools are cut off by a mountain range. This has been done in Pleasantville boro, West St. Clair and other Townships, it was reported.

LEG WAS SWOLLEN TO TWICE NATURAL SIZE.

"The fact that I am able to do my work today as well as I have ever done it is due to my use of The Reese Formula R11," J. W. A. Wallace, a blacksmith, of Richmond, Va., says, and continues:

"I suffered terribly from rheumatism in my right leg and from kidney trouble. I had such awful pains across my back and in my leg, which was swollen to twice its natural size, that it was impossible for me to get about. Although I have taken only one bottle of The Reese Formula R-11 I am able to get about again, and all my pain has left me. I strongly recommend R-11 for rheumatism and kidney troubles as it sure has done me a world of good."

Fear Local Team

Coach Everhart is now getting the Uniontown high school fotball team ready for the game Saturday with Monessen in this city. Unless a game is scheduled for Thanksgiving it will be the last high school game of football that several members of the team will play, Francis, McElwain, Raymond, Sanner and White, regulars, being members of the senior class.

Uniontown will be out to win with more determination than that which marked their play against Charleroi several weeks ago which, persons who witnessed the game declared was the best high school foorball game they had ever witnessed. Monessen and Uniontown have met twice before on the gridiron, the down river eleven having been victorious on both occasions. In the two previous games, Monessen has employed a shift which is similar in its execution to the shift employed by Georgia Tech.

No definite lineup has been announced by Coach Everhart, but Hoover, who has been outplaying the opposing centers on all teams that Uniontown has played this year will be back at his old position in the middle of the line. Sanner will be at tackle where his weight will be of a great help. It is not known whether McElvain will be able to start the game or not, as his shoulder, which was injured in the Morgantown contest had not yielded to the treatment as rapidly as was expected Coach Everhart is grooming Nixon and Jones for the halfback berths in case McElvain is unable to get into the game.—Uniontown Herald.

Mother Greatful

I take this means to express my appreciation and heartfelt thanks for the kind deeds and financial help which I have received many times since my husband died and I was left to struggle along without hardly any means, and with nine children to support. Anybody with a family of children can understand that it is no easy matter to care for a family at times like these. After thinking and much mental suffering, I decided that it was for the best of the boys to send two of them to the Home. I saw that it would be impossible for me to be able to give them proper food and clothing.

The boys said they were willing to go if the other one would go. But when the departing time came I could not keep up my courage and hold back the tears, so it became a little harder for the boys to leave. Now I feel that they are in good care and I will try to conquer my own feelings and pray to God that they will grow up to be good men. I wish to thank the I. O. O. F., Mothers' Pension, Tin Plate Workers and everybody who has in any way helped me.

Sell Seals To Fight The Great White Plague

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 17—Plans for the active participation of the entire Salvation Army in the nationwide Christmas Seal sale set for December 1 to 11 have been perfected, according to an announcement made public today by the National Tuberculosis Association here. The annual sale of Christmas Seals, which is held simultaneously by the 1,500 local constituents of the national association, provided the funds for the year-round fight against the Great White Plague which is waged in every state.

Following conferences with the tuberculosis officials, Commander Evangeline Booth, head of the Salvation Army, has just issued instructions covering the part her organization is to play in the undertaking, and with the co-operation of Commissioners Thomas Estill, William Peart and Adam Gifford, New York, Chicago and San Francisco territorial commanders, respectively, between 30,000 and 40,000 Salvationists will devote the evening of Wednesday, December 8, and all of the following day to the sale of the little stamps. Commander Booth herself plans to man one of the selling stations to be opened here.

"Of the 1,3000,000 active and suspected cases of tuberculosis in this country," said Miss Booth, "by far the larger number are among the poor—the very classes to which the Salvation Army has been ministering for 40 years."

The largest previous year was 1917, when 96 recruits were appointed and sent out by the Methodists. During the fiscal year just concluded, 275 new missionaries were appointed, and 80 were assigned to South America, 60 to China, 50 to India and Burma, 50 to Malaysia, 6 to Mexico, 5 to Japan, 2 to Korea and 2 to Europe. The list does not include relief workers in European war areas.

Representatives of 21 foreign governments have been invited to attend including England and Mexico.

RED CROSS HELPS IN BIG DISASTERS

More Than 30,000 Persons Assisted in 73 Calamities.

SERVICE NOW MORE EFFICIENT

Four Hundred Chapters Have Committees to Aid in Flood, Fire or Other Visitation.

Virtually every phase of Red Cross service, including First Aid, Nursing, Health Service, Home Service, Junior Red Cross, Military and Civilian Relief, was brought into play by the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year in aiding 30,000 persons in 164 communities, victims of 73 disasters.

In the accomplishment of this relief work 140 Red Cross Chapters were called upon to assist, the sum of $900,000 in cash and supplies was expended, thirty temporary hospitals were called into existence, twenty odd motor corps were organized, seven special relief trains were sent out and 110 special representatives and nurses were furnished in addition to the aid given by the local Red Cross workers in the community visited by disaster.

In these 73 disasters, including 16 tornadoes and cyclones, 2 hurricanes, 2 cloud bursts, 1 hail storm, 2 earthquakes, 1 landslide, 15 fires, 1 explosion, 9 floods, 10 shipwrecks, 1 train wreck, 4 riots, 1 motor accident and 2 droughts—850 persons were killed, 1500 were injured, 18,000 (approximately) were rendered homeless, while property valued at $1,000,000 was destroyed.

The largest and most destructive disaster of the year was at Corpus Christi, Texas, in September, 1919. Approximately 400 were killed and 4000 made homeless. The Red Cross division director, with a staff of 35 assistants, administered a fund of $400,000, giving aid to 3600 families and four towns and rural districts, and sufficient supplies to each family to enable it to stand on its feet.

Activity in Divisions.

Because of tornadoes, the Gulf and Lake Divisions were called upon to send emergency relief with trained workers into nearly 80 communities. The two droughts in Montana and North Dakota gave abundant opportunity for trained workers from the Northern Division to help the Red Cross Chapters demonstrate their usefulness, while a number of shipwrecks proved the readiness of the Atlantic Division and the New York Metropolitan Area Committee to assist in that line of work.

The record of last year emphasizes the need of abundant preparedness along the line of disaster relief and has resulted in the organization of Disaster Preparedness Committees by about 400 Chapters and the setting aside of a special emergency fund by the National Organization of $5,000,000 in addition to the regular appropriation for this purpose made in its budget.

Another feature of Red Cross work which has been greatly extended the past year is the Home Service in the families of civilians, patterned after the Home Service which rendered assistance to the $8,000 families of soldiers and sailors during the war.

This service, which was inaugurated late last year, was extended to 660 families. It is furnished only where there is no other established agency for performing this special class of public service, and is confined to chapters of the Red Cross which comply with certain restrictions intended to maintain standards and perpetuate the work. Approximately 1000 chapters have made application for such authority and 573 have so far been given the desired permission. The plan of extension contemplates not only the conduct of general family welfare work, but the seeking out and developing of demands for other forms of community service and securing the co-operation of specialized organizations to fill these needs.

Work of Juniors.

During the school year 1919-1920, the Junior Red Cross was chiefly concerned with the necessary relief work which was the legacy of the war period. The school children of America were called upon to supply, besides rugs, curtains, bandages, splints, afghans, bedside tables and other hospital equipment and supplies for the United States Public Health Service Hospitals where sick and wounded soldiers were being restored to health and strength. Thousands of these articles were contributed. Manual training school classes devoting much time to this work of practical service on the part of the Juniors. In addition to this, the children performed much community service.

The Juniors contributed to the National Children's Fund, the fund from which the European projects are financed, carried the period July 20, 1919, to June 30, 1920, a total of $535,623 in addition to sums raised and money expended in countless local activities which brought happiness to the children at home.

The Juniors of America carried good cheer to thousands of children in war-stricken Belgium, France, Italy and throughout Central Europe.

PROCLAMATION

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
HARRISBURG

The Governor.

October 28, 1920

TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

The work of the Red Cross during the late war, with its attendant prevention and alleviation of human suffering, its care of the blind, its assistance to the destitute widows and orphans of our heroic men who gave up their lives for their country, needs now no tribute. That work stands before our citizens and is its own memorial.

But we must not be unmindful that there is and always will be great work to be undertaken by this organization to continue carrying on a system of national and international relief in time of peace, and to apply the same in handling the suffering caused by calamities of many kinds. The plans of the Red Cross for the ensuing year are far reaching, and that these plans may be successful the cooperation of all red-blooded American citizens is solicited by the call to again enroll in the organization.

The period from November eleventh (Armistice Day) to November twenty-fifth (Thanksgiving Day) has been selected for the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call, when all citizens will have the honor of renewing their memberships and will duly show their appreciation of the outstanding work of the organization.

To this end I earnestly recommend compliance and support with the hope that our fellow citizens will manifest their

We expect deliveries very soon of The Hoovers we ordered last summer. The supply will not long suffice. Many reservations are already placed.

If you reserve your Hoover now, we can deliver it upon arrival Otherwise a wait will be inevitable.

Turkey Season Opened Yesterday

At sunrise yesterday morning, the wild turkey season opened and will close on November 30th. Killing turkeys before sunrise or after sun set, is not permitted. Neither may turkeys be called in any manner or shoot from a blind, and dogs may not be used in hunting them.

It is said there are wild turkeys on the mounts toward Bedford, and they have been reported from the vicinity of Bolivar and other points. Only one turkey may be killed by each hunter. Hunters are asked by the State Game Commission not to fire into a flock of wild turkeys as the probability is that more than one will be shot, and the hunter must assume all responsibility for injuring more than one wild turkey.

Crusade Against Bleached Flour

Harrisburg, Nov. 17.—A sweeping crusade against the sale of bleached flour that will reach every county in Pennsylvania has been ordered by Fred Rasmussen, Secretary of Agriculture of Pennsylvania. Already more than 500 samples of flour have been secured by agents in the Bureau of Foods, while three chemists and eight field agents have been relieved of all other duty and will work exclusively upon the flour crusade.

The advent of new flour from the west has prompted the crusade. Many of the large western millers, unwilling to let their flour age in the natural way, have bleached their flour by the electric process, this adding nitrous acid to the flour. The pure food laws of Pennsylvania provide that flour containing nitrous acid is adulterated and cannot be legally sold here.

Director James Foust of the Bureau of Foods, who is actively in charge of the crusade, has announced that a milling company offering flour containing nitrous acid for sale in Pennsylvania, will not escape with one prosecution and fine but will be prosecuted in every case where the impure flour is offered for sale.

Twenty prosecutions are already prepared against one large milling house in the Middle West, while up to this time the chemists have found eleven different brands of flour containing nitrous acid being sold in the state.

The crusade will be extended until the impure flour has been driven from the market.

There are 1,800 millers in Pennsylvania and not a pound of flour containing nitrous acid is produced by this industry. The Department is determined that millers in other states who ship their flour into Pennsylvania must comply with the pure food laws the same as the against the flour containing nitrous acid has been instigated to protect not only the consuming public but the milling interests of Pennsylvania, as well.

Telephone Question Up for Discussion

Harrisburg, Nov. 15.—The question whether a private branch telephone exchange in a department store constitutes a special telephone service or is wholesale service was argued today before the Public Service Commission in the protest of Philadelphia concerns against the rates of the Bell Telephone Company.

R. V. Maryo, counsel for the telephone company, asserted the rates were justifiable on the ground that it was an extra service and should not be placed upon all subscribers, but upon those directly benefiting. The commission may act upon the matter in a few days.

Turkey Day Classic Will Be Attractive

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 17.—The curtain is rung down on the collegiate football season in Pittsburgh Thanksgiving Day when University of Pittsburgh plays its annual game with Penn State college at Forbes Field. Never in the history of the sport locally has there been so much interest in a contest and thousands will have to be turned away on account of lack of space. At the W. & J game November 13th, a crowd of 31,500 attended, which broke all records. At the State game the figures will be exceeded if this is possible as all reserved seats were disposed of 10 days before the game. General admission space to accommodate about 10,000, is the only thing now available and it is being gobbled up fast

Penn State enters the game a favorite, notwithstanding its setback at Lehigh, when the South Bethlehem team held them to a 7-7 tie. It is generally considered here that the Bezdekians did not show their true form and entered the game overconfident. Pitt had the same experience with its great team at Annapolis and almost lost a 20-19 game. A week later they went to Syracuse and overwhelmed the All-American Orange team and later went through the season with big score games over Penn, Penn State, W. & J., and other strong aggregations.

State has won over Dartmouth, Nebraska and other strong teams this year and has one of the best teams in its history. Pitt has a 100 game with Syracuse as the only obstacle to a clear record and would be rated high by the critics if a victory over State would be the Panther 1st Thanksgiving Day. Last year State won, after six straight years of reverses at the hands of the locals.

The Panthers will naturally figure most on Tom Davies, the brilliant halfback, for long gains around the State ends and his showing, as compared to that of the great Charlie Way of State, will be closely watched. Coach "Pop" Warner will have Tom Holleran at quarterback to work with Davies, the two being team mates at Kiski prep school. Anderson will start at fullback with Herb McCracken at the other half. The latter closes a brilliant football career with this game as he is a Senior. The rest of the Pitt team will be the same as started the W. & J game, with possibility of Harman at tackle, who may give way to Sacks, a star of the 1919 Freshman team.

State will bring 2000 undergraduate rooters, led by its crack student band, to the game. Thousands of alumni of both institutions will be here from all over the United States.

Suspect Released

Fayette City—When state police summoned a young man from above Fayette City to appear before them for conference reports were circulated purporting that an arrest had been made in the recent fires. Emphatic denials of arrests or additional clues were made again.

"Merely conferred with a few on another case entirely and then these reports were circulated," one of the officials said.
